

The WR DTC International Development Pathway

*Glyn Williams (Sheffield), Jörg Wiegratz
(Leeds) and Carole Spary*

2nd October 2013

Who's who: pathway leads

- Carole Spary (Politics, York)

- Jörg Wiegratz (POLIS, Leeds)

- Glyn Williams (Town and Regional Planning, Sheffield)

Last Year's Activities...

Leeds:

- Training workshops (ethics, risk assessments and fieldwork preparation); Seminar by DFID research staff; Lunchtime discussions
- Conference on development research (Sept 2012)

Sheffield

- Training workshops (fieldwork, ethics and getting published); SIID Seminars and discussions
- Conference on development research (March 2013)

York

- 'Working in political organisations'; Departmental Seminars

Plans for 2013-14

Leeds:

- Welcome event for UoL development students: 17th October (2-4pm). Come along!
- Conference on development research - 7th November. Thanks to DTC for support with funding!
- Workshop on being strategic during your PhD
- Methods training workshops e.g. surveys, interviews, participatory research
- Seminar on careers in international development

Plans for 2013-14

Sheffield

- SIID PG welcome (Monday Oct 7th: 5pm, ICOSS)
- Autumn Workshops: Researching Everyday Practices (18th Nov); Fieldwork (22nd Nov);
- Spring Workshops: Getting Published (Feb 17th); Ethics (March 24th - tbc);
- PG Conference (March/April)

York

- Politics induction event (week 1)

Your thoughts and input welcome – most of last year's events came via PhD student ideas/engagement!

Links and Networks

Within the White Rose

- Sheffield – SIID <http://siid.group.shef.ac.uk/>
- Leeds – RIDNet <http://www.polis.leeds.ac.uk/centre-global-development/about-centre/researchers-development-network/> (email ridnet@leeds.ac.uk)
- York – Centre for Applied Human Rights (CAHR) and Post-War Reconstruction and Development Unit (PRDU)

Wider links

- Development Studies Association; Political Studies Association; Royal Geographical Society...